NOTES ON THE TOURNAMENT

- * In the opening match, los Matematicos I, II, and IV defeated el Hijo del Diablo and los Mohicanos I and II.

Tournament First Round:

- * In the Villano III/Fishman win, Villano III had his mask ripped so bad Fishman had to win almost single-handedly.
- * Silver King and Babe Face won over Santo/Oro when Babe Face claimed a low blow from Oro (one never occurred) and the ref called for an immediate DQ on Oro.
- * Plata/Guerrero beat Idomito/Agauyo via DQ when Indomito was disqualified.

Quarterfinals

- * el Engendo and Chavo guerreño were said to be the surprise team of the tournament, having two good matches.
- * In the Plata/Guerrero vs. Silver King/Babe face, at the end of the match, all four were fighting with one another without regards to teams or face/heels.

Semifinal

- * Villano III had his mask ripped even worse, and he was so busy covering up one side he got beat in what was described as a good match.

Final

- * The Killer had his manager Andy Barrow at ringside. His interference helped the Killer win the first fall, but el Gigante guerrero got a big pop by "knocking him out" at the end of the second fall.
- * el Gigante Guerrero wrestled as a tecnico for this match.
- * Guerrero pinned The Killer with a power slam to win the match and the tournament. Just seconds earlier, Plata had had Vera pinned from an off-the-top-rope "superfly" splash.
